

EVENING OPTIONS

The Big Gig (Dinner activity)

Do you think you have what it takes?! Then put your mind to the challenge, get down and boogie and show us what you've got. THE BIG GIG, modelled on the popular TV show 'Spicks 'n' Specks' will test your team's knowledge of sport, music, film and television. THE BIG GIG is a highly entertaining team spirited evening activity encouraging participants to meet the entertainment challenge by pooling resources, beat the buzzer, and bring out surprising latent talents in front of the team.

Murder Mystery (Dinner activity)

You may have been to a murder mystery, but have you played it in teams? Each table team has a different identity: Contiki Backpackers, Shonkey Sales Corp, Western Diggers Footy Club etc and of course have their own motive for the crime. Over the course of dinner the teams swap clues and can ask each other questions to determine the guilty table. Lots of laughter as the teams play out their roles - a great way to make dinner fun and keep the interaction happening across the whole group! (maximum 50 people)

African Drumming (After-dinner activity)

Traditional African music reflects the communal nature of African life: people need to work together (drum together) to achieve their goals. This "hands on" experience gives your team a good feeling about achieving something new together ~ a truly unique team experience!

New for 2009

Ridgee Didge (After-dinner activity)

So you think you can't play a didgeridoo? Well think again. Now is the time to show your team talents, master new skills, compose your own dinky-di didgeridoo tune to out-master your competition, and maybe even choreograph a walkabout dance. No experience is necessary in this surprisingly easy and highly entertaining activity. (Cultural element can be included upon request.)
